SUPREME COURT OF LOUISIANA

No. 2020-C-1004

C. Gary Wainwright

vs.

Diedre Pierce Kelly and
Arthur Morrell, in his Official Capacity as the Clerk of Court for the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana

On Supervisory Writ to the Civil District Court,
Parish of Orleans

Granted. Louisiana Constitution article V, § 24 states that potential candidates “shall have been admitted to the practice of law in the state” for eight years in order to qualify for a district judicial seat (emphasis added). Ms. Kelly was admitted to the bar on October 20, 2011. She was suspended from the practice of law between April 2, 2015, and November 15, 2016. It follows that the period of her suspension did not accrue towards the required eight years of admission to the practice of law. Thus, the lower courts’ rulings are reversed, and Ms. Kelly is disqualified as a candidate for Orleans Parish Criminal District Court Judge, Section “K.”
