SUPREME COURT OF LOUISIANA

No. 2020-KH-00107

STATE OF LOUISIANA

versus

JEFFERY PEEL

ON SUPERVISORY WRIT TO THE TWENTY-FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, PARISH OF TANGIPAHOA

PER CURIAM:

Writ granted. Defendant, who was sentenced to a net term of imprisonment of 15 years, filed a motion seeking to be resentenced in accordance with the terms of his plea agreement, which the district court denied. In light of the State's concessions before this court that all parties agreed at the time defendant pleaded guilty that he would only serve 12 years imprisonment, and that the district court would resentence him in accordance with this agreement if the Department of Public Safety & Corrections deemed him ineligible for "good time" diminution of sentence, we grant defendant's application and remand to the district court. The district court is ordered to resentence defendant in accordance with the terms of his plea agreement to a net term of imprisonment not to exceed 12 years.
