SUPREME COURT OF LOUISIANA

No. 2021-C-01793

KAYLA E'LANA WATSON

VS.

DANIEL CHRISTOPHER BANGUEL

On Writ of Certiorari to the Court of Appeal, First Circuit, Parish of East Baton Rouge

PER CURIAM:

Writ Granted. As observed by Judge McDonald, the case is not moot as the entry of the protective order could have lasting effects on the applicant's personal and professional life. See Cat's Meow, Inc. v. City of New Orleans Through Dept. of Fin., 98-0601 p. 13 (La. 10/20/98), 720 So. 2d 1186, 1196 ("collateral consequences of the case or controversy give a party a concrete interest in the outcome of the litigation and ensure that the appeal is not moot"). If the order were overturned on appeal, applicant would have the right to an expungement under La. R.S. 46:2136.2(A). The matter is remanded to the court of appeal for a full consideration on the merits.
