SUPREME COURT OF LOUISIANA

No. 2022-C-01014

IN RE: JUDICIAL COMMITMENT OF M.M.
(EDWARD BROSSETTE CONTEMPT PROCEEDING)

On Writ of Certiorari to the Court of Appeal, Second Circuit, Parish of Caddo

PER CURIAM

The parties, the attorneys, and the retired judge initiating the contempt proceedings have given the trial judge an unenviable task, which she has handled commendably. However, on the facts before us, there is insufficient evidence to find applicant guilty of contempt of court. The rulings of the lower courts are therefore reversed and the finding of contempt of court is vacated.

REVERSED. JUDGMENT OF CONTEMPT VACATED.
