SUPREME COURT OF LOUISIANA

NO. 2023-B-0632

IN RE: RICARDO A. CABALLERO

ATTORNEY DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDING

PER CURIAM

On June 21, 2023, we suspended respondent from the practice of law for one year and one day, with all but ninety days deferred, followed by a two-year period of supervised probation with conditions, based upon allegations that he mishandled his client trust account. In re: Caballero, 23-0632 (La. 6/21/23), 362 So. 3d 404. Respondent's probation agreement included a requirement that he submit to the Office of Disciplinary Counsel ("ODC"), on a semi-annual basis, a CPA's written report of audits of the trust account.

The ODC and respondent have now filed a joint motion seeking to extend respondent's probation for an additional two-year period. In support, they assert the extension is warranted to address issues uncovered during the prior trust account audits.

The requested extension is appropriate under the facts. Accordingly, we will extend respondent's probation for an additional two years, subject to all conditions of probation imposed by our June 21, 2023 order and by respondent's probation agreement.

DECREE

Considering the Joint Motion to Extend Probation filed by the ODC and respondent, Ricardo A. Caballero, also known as Rick A. Caballero, Louisiana Bar Roll number 1744, it is ordered that the two-year period of supervised probation imposed upon respondent in In re: Caballero, 23-0632 (La. 6/21/23), 362 So. 3d 404, be extended for a period of two years. All conditions of probation imposed by our June 21, 2023 order and by respondent's probation agreement shall remain in full force and effect during the extended probationary period. Any failure of respondent to comply with these conditions, or any other misconduct during the probationary period, may be grounds for revocation of probation and the imposition of the previously deferred portion of the suspension, or other discipline, as appropriate.
